

Mark Wolfe is the Engineering Manager for Materials Engineering and Core Engineering at Inteva Products. He has worked his whole career in Automotive Interiors. He started as a tool engineer in 1991 then moved into industrial engineering, lead manufacturing engineering, and product engineering prior to his current assignment. Mark holds a B.S degree in Manufacturing Engineering from Miami University Oxford, Ohio and M.S. in Engineering Science from Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute (RPI).