Call for Papers to PAD Members for ANTEC 2024

ANTEC 2024 will be held in St. Louis MO from March 4 to March 7. Please consider submitting a title and abstract for the Polymer Analysis Division (PAD) sessions that we will run at this event. The deadline for submitting the Abstract is October 6. Final decisions on accepted presenters will be notified by October 27. The deadline for Papers or Presentations is November 24 .

We have been fortunate to have excellent sessions in PAD for the last several years, and we plan to continue excellent sessions in 2024 and beyond. So, whether you have presented frequently at ANTEC or this would be your first time, please consider submitting one or more title/abstracts, and we will do our best to have your presentation accepted for ANTEC 2024.

PAD Board Meeting August 2023

The PAD board met virtually on August 4, 2023. The attendees were Terri Chen, Praveen Boopalachandran, Greg Kamykowski, Kyle Kulwicki, and Cassie Downing.

We are planning to have 2 more virtual PAD board meetings prior to ANTEC. The board would like to expand and take on new members. We are striving for a large turnout for presentation/paper submissions for ANTEC. We discussed different ways to use the PAD funding. Possible future awards for best presentations were discussed as well as a possible donation to plastics education— ex. PlastiVan (<https://www.4spe.org/i4a/pages/index.cfm?pageid=3312>).
